BASEBALL ON MAUI ISLAND

The Athletic Association Wants To Give Sunday Games and Will Unless Stopped By Police.

WAILUKU, January 25.—A meeting of the Maui Athletic Association of Wailuku was held at the court house this evening for the purpose of electing officers and reorganizing the club, in preparation for the coming baseball season. The election of officers resulted as follows: President, D. L. Meyer; vice-president, E. H. Rogers; secretary, J. Garcia; treasurer, G. B. Schrader; directors, D. Crowell, Clem Crowell, A. Garcia. L. M. Baldwin, who has been president of the association for the past three years, declined a renomination, explaining that he could not accept the office on account of his position as Sheriff of Maui. Sunday baseball matters for the coming season were discussed, with the result that a committee was appointed to look into the prospect of a league during the year 1926. Sunday baseball was also discussed, and it was decided that games be played on Sunday, unless the police authorities enforce the law, by stopping this recreation. The most important matter brought up at the meeting was the proposition of C. B. Wells with reference to Wells' Park. Mr. Wells stated to Sheriff Baldwin, the retiring president, that he would allow the Association to retain the use of the grounds under certain conditions. The association decided to abide by those conditions, and L. M. Baldwin was appointed a committee of one to convey the wishes of the association to Mr. Wells. League games will probably commence the latter part of April or early part of May, provided three nines could be gotten together.

ARRAIGNMENTS THIS MORNING

A NUMBER OF THE GRAND JURY'S VICTIMS APPEAR BEFORE ROBINSON AND PLEAD.

A batch of those upon whom the Grand Jury has set the sign of its disapproval appeared in Judge Robinson's court arraignment Saturday. Among them was Ah Ho, a well known Chinese merchant who is accused of selling awa without a license. Judge Stanley who appeared for him entered a plea of not guilty and voiced a vigorous protest to the indignities to which his client had been subjected by the police. Although a man of means and standing in the community he had been arrested at 9 o'clock at night and had been hurried to the police station where he had been kept without a chance to get bail.

Taga, on the charge of attempting to bribe officer Rose, pleaded guilty and sentence was reserved until the 31st. His horse was standing on the street untied and when the officer came along Taga offered him a dollar to let him go.

Manuel Vasconcellos, charged with drunkenness reserved his plea until today.

Martin Hiko accused of assisting in the management of a che fa game, pleaded not guilty as did Bigaki and Kimoto, both charged with the illicit sale of liquor. Kapena Richard, on a charge of having used profane and obscene language, pleaded not guilty. The cases were marked ready in turn.

SATURDAY'S BASKETBALL.

In the basketball games on Saturday the Punahou beat the Kams by 26 to 13 and the Y. W. C. A. defeated the High Schools by the narrow margin of 17 to 16. The Punahou and Kams are now tied for the first place in the series of the High School and Y. W. C. A. are tied for third place and the Normals bring up the rear.

BRIDGES AND WIDE TIRES.

WAILUKU, January 25.—The police authorities on Maui are vigorously enforcing some of the laws, which owing to their never having been enforced, were practically forgotten. During the past two weeks there have been many arrests for fast driving over bridges, and in nearly every case a fine was imposed. The police are rounding up all freight wagons and compelling the owners to comply with the wide tire law. This law is also being strictly enforced in the Makawao and Kula districts, and is working a great hardship on many of the poorer class who depend on their hauling for their daily bread. The representatives from this island are being asked through the different political and civic organizations, to use their influence to repeal the law.

MAILES BEAT IOLANIS.

There was a good game of Association Football played at the baseball part on Saturday afternoon between the Mailes and the Iolanis. The Mailes won by 3 goals to 1.

THE EDWARD MAY.

KAHULUI, January 25.—The bark Edward May, Hansen, arrived at Kahului on Wednesday the 25th with a full cargo of coal from Tacoma. She was forty days in making the trip. It took the May just four days days to cover the distance between Hana and Kahului. She made four miles on one day, and ten miles in another; she was becalmed off the coast of Maui. Work on the Edward May will be commenced as soon as the big steamer is out of the harbor.

OTHER BUSINESS.

Some of the state legislatures have so much to do in the way of deciding political contests that legislation becomes a subordinate matter.

HONOLULU ROMANCE REACHES CLIMAX

GEORGE R. FIELD OF RISON IRON WORKS TO MARRY A DAUGHTER OF COLORADO.

SAN FRANCISCO, January 17.—A romance begun in Honolulu last April will reach a climax the latter part of this month with the marriage of Mrs. Gertrude D. McCauley and George R. Field. Mr. Field is a well-known member of the Bohemian Club and has been construction engineer with the Rison Iron Works for eleven years. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Field of Croton, New York, and has been prominent in society both here and in the eastern metropolis.

Mrs. McCauley is the daughter of Charles H. White, a banker and capitalist of Colorado Springs. She has travelled extensively and spent much of her girlhood in Boston, where she received her education. Mrs. McCauley is at the present time in Pleasanton where she has been spending the winter and indulging her fancy for good horses and golf, but will come to the city in time to prepare for the wedding which will take place here within two weeks.

ANOTHER 'FRISCO BANK MERGER

TWO BIG BANKS, BOTH REPRESENTED BY CORRESPONDENTS IN HONOLULU TO CONSOLIDATE

Two of the biggest and oldest banks in San Francisco, banks which both have correspondents in Honolulu are to be amalgamated. These two banks are the Nevada National bank and the Wells, Fargo & Company bank.

I. W. Hellman of the Nevada bank is quoted on the consolidation:

"Wells, Fargo & Co's Bank and the Nevada National bank of San Francisco will consolidate their capital and interests under the corporate name of 'The Wells, Fargo Nevada National Bank,' with a capital of six million dollars; surplus, three and a half million dollars. The division and disposition of this capital between the several interests is a matter to be determined finally by the stockholders of the respective companies, so that nothing can be given out at this time definitely upon that subject, although the proportions have been decided upon by the officers and directors of the two banks."

"It will take some time to bring about final consolidation of interests as the Nevada National Bank stockholders will have to be called together, and thirty days' notice must be given of such meeting. All various other matters of detail regarding the business of Wells, Fargo & Co., will take some time to settle."

"According to the figures above given and the last published statements of the two banks, their combined assets, after consolidation, will approximate thirty million dollars, which will make it one of the largest and strongest banks in the United States."

The Honolulu correspondents of the Nevada National Bank are Claus Spreckels & Company's bank, and of Wells Fargo & Company's bank, the Bank of Hawaii.
